The Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy, National University of Singapore (NUS) will be organizing a lecture and programme briefing by Prof. Kanti Bajpai, Vice- Dean (Research) on Saturday, 05 October 2013 at 11.00 am.

We will share the unique positioning of the LKY School programmes, the international partnerships with Harvard Kennedy School, Columbia SIPA, LSE, Sciences Po etc. and also the scope and extent of Scholarships and Financial Aid available.

NUS is ranked No. 1 in Asia and 24th in the world by QS World University Rankings. Strategically located in Asia and with 80% international students, NUS LKY School offers an unparalleled opportunity to deepen the Asian perspective and to network with leaders from all over the world. It offers the unique advantage of amalgamating theories originating in the West and best practices emerging in the East.

For those who are interested to learn more about the programmes at LKY School, this is your opportunity to interact and discuss with senior staff and faculty.
