

IES – GES Exchange Programme

An Exchange Programme between the Officers of the Indian Economic Service and the General Economic Service (GES) of United Kingdom is underway, aimed at systemic capacity building and knowledge transfer. Under the first round of Exchange, two Officers of the GES are in India, who are attached to the Office of Chief Economic Adviser, Ministry of Finance. The Officers are: Mr. Neil Golborne and Ms. Felicity Hannon. A joint Presentation made by the GES Officers in the Economic Division, Ministry of Finance recently, outlining the challenges and successes relating to the GES, is attached.