Dear Madam/ Sir,

We are pleased to inform you that the IMF's Institute for Capacity Development (ICD) will offer a two-week course on Financial Programming and Policies (SA17.05, FPP) at the IMF South Asia Regional Training and Technical Assistance Center (SARTTAC) in New Delhi, India. The course will be held from June 19-30, 2017.

We would appreciate it if you could encourage eligible candidates from your agency to apply for the course online using this link. The deadline for submitting applications is May 26, 2017.

Further details may be found in the course description below:

Financial Programming and Policies (FPP)

Apply online by May 26, 2017

Course No.: SA 17.05

Location: New Delhi, India

Date: June 19-30, 2017 (2 Weeks)

Language: English

Target Audience:

Officials from ministries of finance, economy, and planning, or central banks, who advise on or help implement macroeconomic and financial policies.

Qualifications:

Participants are expected to have a degree in economics or equivalent experience, along with proficiency in the use of spreadsheets. Participants are strongly recommended to complete the online FPP.1x and FPP.2x courses prior to enrolling in this course.

Course Description:

This course, presented by the IMF's Institute for Capacity Development, aims at teaching participants how to both diagnose macroeconomic imbalances and correct them through a coordinated set of adjustment policies. It covers the principal features of the four main macroeconomic sectors (real, fiscal, external, and monetary/financial) and the interrelations among them, highlighting both accounting and behavioral relationships, using data from a country case study.

Course Objectives:

Upon completion of this course, participants should be able to:

Analyze economic and financial developments of a country in the region using historical data and a hands-on, Excel-based framework.

Create consistent one-year economic projections under the assumption of unchanged policies.
